

Travertine bathtub “Culla”

Can a bathtub also be a work of art? We don't want to brag, but our “Culla” bathtub comes pretty close.

The design of this bathtub in Vinaccia travertine was created in collaboration with one of our major customers. It has received significant international appreciation due to its modern and imposing line.

Its shape was designed to be ergonomic and to wrap around the person as they relax in the bath. The part that supports the back and head is the highest to provide support and a high degree of comfort. This detail defines its characteristic shape.
