

Vein-cut travertine “Zebra Silver Ocean”

This selection of Rapolano stone called Zebra Silver is a material cut along the grain with a white background and silver grey veining, coming from the same quarry as Zebra Silver Grey travertine.

Its typical grey, silver, and beige veining make it unique in the world. For this reason, silver travertine is chosen in many prestigious projects.

For special projects, it can be supplied with “recurrent veins”.

- Easy to clean
- It exhibits color variations and veining
